MISSOULA--

Dr. K. Ross Toole, Hammond Professor of History at the University of Montana, will discuss "A Sense of Belonging" Wednesday, May 5, at the University.

Toole will present his free public lecture at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in room 215 of the UM Women's Center.

Commenting on his discussion, Toole said his talk will deal with "the rugged individualist." The lecture is the ninth in a series of 10 programs scheduled at the University in the American Issues Forum Bicentennial Lecture Series.

Toole is author of a number of books, including "The Rape of the Great Plains: Northwest America, Cattle and Coal," published in February 1976 by Atlantic Little-Brown, and "Montana, an Uncommon Land," published in 1959 by the University of Oklahoma Press, Norman, Okla.

He also has written a number of articles for various publications. Among Toole's articles is "The Anaconda Copper Mining Company: A Price War and a Copper Corner," published in the Pacific Northwest Quarterly in October 1950.
